Use Action-Oriented Language

Begin bullet points with strong action verbs such as "organized," "led," "developed," "implemented," or "collaborated." This makes your achievements more impactful.

Quantify Achievements When Possible

Numbers provide context and credibility. For example, "Led a team of five students to organize a charity event that raised $2,000" is more compelling than vague statements.

Tailor Your Resume for Each Job

Customize your resume to match the specific requirements of the role. Use keywords from the job description to pass applicant tracking systems (ATS) and demonstrate relevance.
